- By James Withycombe, Governor of Oregon: Oregon is unquestionably in need of more normal work and Pendleton is the logical place for a school of this class in Eastern Oregon.
- By J. A. Churchill, State Superintendent of Public Instruction: "I trust that the voters of the State will assist in raising the standard of our schools by establishing a State Normal school at Pendleton."
- By P. L. Campbell, President of the University of Oregon: "At least one additional Normal school is urgent needed in Oregon."
- By W. J. Kerr, President of the Oregon Agricultural College: "Since the people of Pendleton are initiating a measure for the establishment of a Normal school at that place, it will give me pleasure to support this measure."
- By J. H. Ackerman, President Oregon Normal School at Monmouth: "A careful analysis of the situation will convince any one that Oregon needs a Normal school in Eastern Oregon and Pendleton fills all the government requirements."
- By the County School Superintendents of Oregon: "Resolved, that it is the sense of the County School Superintendents of the State of Oregon, in convention assembled, that the best interests of the schools of the State demand increased facilities for the training of teachers, and that we, therefore, endorse the initiative measure to establish a Normal school at Pendleton."
- By Mrs. Charles H. Castner, President of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs: "I most heartily endorse the location of said Normal school at Pendleton."
- Prof. Robert C. French, Former President of the Normal School Located at Weston: "An immediate establishment of such a school at some central point such as Pendleton would prove a great asset to the state of Oregon."
- By F. Mulkey, Ex-President Southern Oregon Normal School: "I shall support the location of an Eastern Oregon Normal School at Pendleton."

UNFAIR ATTACKS ON WILSON HAVE REACTED UPON HUGHES

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The New York Evening Post, one of the oldest and most influential independent newspapers in the country, declares tonight in favor of President Wilson's re-election. It bases its advocacy upon the ground that the president's re-election will be for the good of the country. "Having entered the campaign with a mind open to conviction and with high hopes of Mr. Hughes, the Post has found his impressions of policy a sore disappointment. The editorial continues: 'We agree with Professor Bliss Perry in what he has lately written. I like fair play. Having known Woodrow Wilson for nearly 25 years as a high minded gentleman of absolute integrity, of stubborn Scotch-Irish courage and a genuine devotion to his country, I resent the wilful misrepresentations and malignant disparagement which characterize the campaign against him.' 'In this respect Mr. Hughes has been the president's best campaigner. Meanwhile Mr. Wilson in his speeches has shown by contrast how to be identified while forcible, and the increasing emphasis which the whole drift of the campaign has placed upon the president's highest service to the country, his maintenance of peace with honor has been unmistakable. His re-election would be the strongest kind of peace mandate from the people of the United States. It is mainly for this reason that the Evening Post without abating its recorded criticisms for the president a jot believes that a victory for Mr. Wilson next Tuesday would be for the good of the country.'

SERGEON'S BATTLE WITH A MADMAN SAVES SOLDIERS

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Captain J. Walker Jones, an army medical officer, has just received the distinguished service order medal for his daring in dealing with a mad soldier. The insane man was creeping along a trench toward his own comrades with a bomb in each hand, when discovered by the surgeon.

Captain Jones wrenched one bomb from the madman's hand and threw it away. Two officers were injured by the explosion, but many others would have been hurt had not the captain overpowered the lunatic.
